

How to apply for a Training Contract

We are currently taking applications for Training Contracts to commence in September 2011 only.

The deadline for application is 30 April 2010.

In order to apply, you must provide your final (or predicted final) law degree results and you will have been accepted onto an LPC. If you have undertaken an alternative route to qualification, you will need to be able to supply us with appropriate details and qualification results.

Please apply either by e-mail recruitment@ellisjones.co.uk or write to:

Marie Haywood HR Manager
302 Charminster Road
Bournemouth
Dorset
BH8 9RU

Your application must include the following

- A brief letter of application outlining any specific areas of law in which you have a particular interest.
- A current CV showing all academic/exam results and achievements and any legal work experience.

You may be asked to complete an application form.

Upon receipt of your application, we will write to you and let you know if you have been successful in your initial application and what happens next.

If you are unsuccessful, you may, if you wish, apply again for the following year.
